

Waterman Hill

Otis Aldus, Everette Aldus & Walter Pearl

A<sup>7</sup> As sung by Bill Smith

Joyfully  $\text{♩} = 120$

D

1. I've just been down to Wat - er - man hill to view the sights a - round; I
 2. It's where the crops are sure to grow; there's plen-ty of work to be done, And
 3. We'll stir the fire and put in some wood to keep it nice and warm, And
 4. So this, my friend, is my stor - y, I've told you just a - bout half; If won - dered where in the hell I was and how far I was from town. The when the long win - ter night sets in, come 'round and we'll have some fun. There's a then we'll set - tle down for the night and try to keep from harm. And **I should tell you an - y more, you'd prob - 'bly on - ly laugh. So

D

A<sup>7</sup>

wind, it was a - blow - in' and ev - 'ry - thing else was still, So co - zy place in the par - lor; there's one in the kit - chen too; Wher - thought the nights be long and dark, be - lieve me when I say, That all of you good peo - ple, and that is if you will, Just

D

I made up my mind that I'd ar - rived at Wat - er - man Hill.
 ev - er there's room for one, you can *al - ways make room for two.
 this is one place for ker - o - sene lamps; they turn the nights to day.
 bring a - long some la - ger beer when you come to Wat - er - man Hill.

D

A<sup>7</sup>

Ref: Sev - en hun - dred feet is the al - ti - tude, the lev - el a - bove the sea, The foot - hills of the Ad - i - ron - dacks, it's known in the north coun - try. If it's

D

A<sup>7</sup>

fresh air that you're af - ter, you're sure to get your fill; 'Cause (last time) You're

D

that's one thing there's plen - ty of at the top of Wat - er - man Hill.
 just half way be - tween heav - en ***and hell at the top of Wat - er - man Hill.

*This phrase walks down from A to D.

**Smith sings this phrase to the tune of the last phrase of the verse.

***'And' is sung on E; 'hell' is sung on B, and is held out a bit.